About this course
Certificate IV in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) is a course specifically designed for people wishing to teach English to speakers of other languages in Australia or Internationally. This course covers the essential elements to teaching English to speakers of other languages and is highly practical with a major emphasis on practice teaching, which will be delivered through a combination of workshops, lesson observation and lesson delivery.

Career and study pathway
Certificate IV in TESOL is considered equivalent to the Cambridge / RSA Certificate in English Language Teaching to Adults (CELTA), which are recognized internationally as a qualification for teaching English as a foreign or second language (TEFL or TESL).

Learning Outcomes
The course involves an introduction to techniques of classroom management and assessment, and a more thorough introduction to presentation techniques, lesson preparation and analysing language for communicative purposes.

Program Structure
Our specialised program integrates theory and practical modules that have been comprehensively developed to provide students with the foundation skills to develop and deliver classes to speakers of other languages. Students have the opportunity to apply theory by practicing teaching and class observation.
Units of Competency
Students must complete the 5 compulsory below to successfully complete the Certificate IV in TESOL.

Core Units
AABBH  Design and deliver an ESL teaching program
AABBK  Design and develop an ESL learning framework
AABBM  Plan an integrated lesson using communicative language teaching methodology
AABBL  Identify and use basic grammatical concepts and traditional met language
AABBG  Demonstrate understanding of the basic terminology of traditional grammar

WHO IS THIS COURSE FOR?

The course is for people who have a genuine interest in teaching English to speakers of other languages. Our Students come from a diverse multicultural and professional backgrounds. This course is designed to equip Students with the knowledge and skills to teach English.

HOW IS THE COURSE TAUGHT?

The course integrates theory, observation and practice. Studying with both Domestic and International Students gives our TESOL Students a well-grounded understanding of learning in and teaching within a multicultural environment.
Distance Study

Distance study mode is available for all the Certificate IV in TESOL Course. Distance study is done by completing your course work externally. You can even complete the work at home or anywhere else in the world.

Who is distance study for?

The distance study option is for those who are looking to study while working full time or looking for a flexible option for studying. It also gives you the opportunity to study and learn at your own pace.

Is support still available while I study?

There is still study support available for this mode of study through a designated Trainer who will respond to any questions or queries you have during your studies. Correspondence is generally through email.

How does distance study work?

There is a maximum duration set for each course where the Assessment requirements for each Unit of Competency must be submitted and marked competent within the maximum time frame to complete the course. This requires prioritising your time so that you can complete all the Units within the maximum time frame. If you need more time to complete your studies, we can look at options to extend your course end date.

What happens when I complete my course?

Once you complete the course requirements and have confirmation from the College that you have completed your course requirements, you will be sent a Course Completion Form. Once that Form has been filled out and returned to the College, you will be issued your Certificate and Academic Transcript up to 14 days from the date we finish processing your Form.
